

GAA Diamond Courses

Auckland

18th - 24th September 2017

Quality Hotel Parnell
10 - 20 Gladstone Road
Parnell
Auckland 1052

Two courses are offered, limited to 12 students per course.

Conducted by Bill Sechos, Sydney

1. The Gemmological Association of Australia Diamond Grading Course

The course is over 5 days, 9:00am- 5:00pm, Monday 18th to Friday 22nd September 2017

It is an intensive hands-on course, covering all aspects of practical diamond grading for colour, clarity, cut and includes identification of the common diamond treatments, diamond simulants. Each student is provided with all necessary equipment for the course and is provided, to keep, the GAA Diamond Grading Manual, 10x loupe, tweezers, cloth. There is an exam on the Friday and, upon passing, will be awarded the GAA Diamond Grading Certificate. This course is also the practical section of the GAA Diploma in Diamond Technology, which you can complete by correspondence with GAA if you choose, although a prerequisite diploma in gemmology is required. The course is designed for those with a keen interest in learning more about diamonds, ideal for those in the trade who wish to advance their skills.

2. The Gemmological Association of Australia Advanced Diamond Grading Course

The course is over 2 days, 9:00am- 5:00pm, Saturday 22nd to Sunday 23rd September 2017

The advanced course is only suited for those who have already completed the GAA Diamond Grading Course, however you can do both courses in tandem if you choose. It covers a more in-depth study of diamond grading including evaluating brilliance, dispersion & scintillation, fancy shapes, fancy colours, old cuts, evaluating stones for re-cutting and more. The course is suited to those who wish to take their skills to the next level for a career working with diamonds. There is an exam and, upon passing, will be awarded the GAA Advanced Diamond Grading Certificate.
